1. Once the team member starts answering a question, no more than a five(5) second pause will be allowed during the answer.
2. Any incorrect part of an answer, even by mistake, cannot be corrected unless the contestant did not completely say the word. In that case only, a contestant may switch the word if they realize they started to say the incorrect word.

Special Notes

1. For Anagrams, at 15s, clue 1 given. At 20s, clue 2 given. After the second clue has been completely read out, the team will have 5 additional seconds to answer for 10 points.

2. If the second team has the chance to answer, the moderator will call on them and give four(4) seconds before calling time.

3. Team members can confer with each other while the question is being read and till time is called. The second team may only confer in writing. Once the captain or designated player begins answering, his or her teammates may only confer with him or her in writing.

1. There can be no conferring (verbal / written) with team members before or after a player buzzes in.

2. The team will be penalized by losing 20 points if the team members discuss or give input to the individual who is supposed to answer.
